PLANET DEGREE SYMBOLISM

Venus, Cancer 2

Cancer 2: A MAN SUSPENDED OVER A VAST LEVEL PLACE. A symbol of man's capacity for an illimitable overview of his experience in advance of his involvement in its details, and of the infinite ramification of possibilities he is able to uncover in the world he seeks to make his own. Implicit in the negative symbolism is the poise in act by which he escapes the bondage of any random compulsions, and a leisure in perspective which preserves his free choice. Keyword: CONTEMPLATION When positive, the degree is an exceptional spread of comprehension and a continual self-orientation of understanding, and when negative, a flighty transcendence or an impatience with all immediate or down-to-earth considerations.

Mars, Virgo 23

Virgo 23: AN ANIMAL TRAINER. A symbol of the organic integrity of the world at large, evident here in man's gift for using all its interweaving relationships to impose his ideas and desires on lesser forms of life. Implicit in the symbolism is the fact that an individual will be conditioned more and more hopelessly by his environment and experience if he fails to give continual attention to his own potentials and to the self-discipline he must have to develop them. He finds that he can do everything for which he is able to enlist the whole of himself. Keyword: RESOLUTENESS When positive, the degree is illimitable patience and adroitness in personal accomplishment, and when negative, futile show-off and idle boasting.

Jupiter, Aquarius 1

Aquarius 1: AN OLD ADOBE MISSION. A symbol of everlasting sustainment, and of the necessity for both an over-all orientation and an underlying stability in all personal existence. Implicit in the static symbolism is man's heritage of enduring ties which he must neither neglect nor underrate, and so a call on him to remember his own true state at all times. Here is emphasis on the unbroken continuity between the psychological and physical certainties of his being, and a reminder of their continuing value to him. Keyword: DURABILITY When positive, the degree is effective breadth of vision and a respect-compelling depth of character, and when negative, lack of ambition and blind adherence to superficialities.

Saturn, Capricorn 26

Capricorn 26: A WATER SPRITE. A symbol of a pure mastery of experience in its inner or spiritual aspect, and of the possession of every richness of outer reality to a highly imaginative or personal form. Here the pure integrity of self asserts itself as a protection against blind or inept participation in the current course of events, and calls for a conscious self-idealization in even the most unimportant or transient functions of life. Spontaneity is demanded as a necessary quickening to values. Keyword: RESTLESSNESS When positive, the degree is an exceptional sensitiveness to over-all implications and high skill in avoiding drab or commonplace involvements, and when negative, carefree irresponsibility and a dislike of intimacies.

Uranus, Leo 26

Leo 26: A RAINBOW. A symbol of the over-all realization which comes to man for his guidance whenever he strives to reach his goals of a more enduring sort. Here is assurance of divine participation in the most unpromising of human relationships. The individual learns that there is a consistent ordering throughout the world in which he finds himself, and that nature will cooperate effectively with every vision he chooses to keep alive on his own account. Keyword: SIGNIFICANCE When positive, the degree is a sense of very real spiritual power and presence in all personal effort and desire, and when negative, an uncritical acceptance of every passing hope or dream as something on which to depend.

Neptune, Scorpio 9

Scorpio 9: DENTAL WORK. A symbol of self-renewal through a continuous and conscientious attention to the needs of the being on all planes of effort, and of that stewardship of an inner and divine spark through which individuality sustains its spiritual citizenship in the symbolical community of its kind. Here are high personal rewards for every proper concern over one's own potentialities and possessions. Man fulfills his highest mission as he dramatizes himself and his excellencies for his fellows. Keyword: PRACTICALITY When positive, the degree is a creative ingenuity brought to a real service for others, and when negative, a thoughtless acceptance of life's makeshifts and an unhealthy admiration for artificiality.

Pluto, Virgo 7

Virgo 7: A HAREM. A symbol of the withdrawal from reality in one aspect as a means for regrasping it in another, here dramatized by an acceptance of regimentation as a species of insulation against life's demand for some more dynamic manifestation of the self. Implicit in the static symbolism is the necessity for using any fellowship in lesser values as a self-strengthening in a definite and renewed struggle towards the greater. An enforced conservation of energies need not encourage a surrender of basic ideals. Keyword: RESTRAINT When positive, the degree is a courageous and complete disregard of limitation by the rejection of its terms at any cost, and when negative, self-betrayal for momentary ease.

Ascendant, Aquarius 19

Aquarius 19: A FOREST FIRE QUENCHED. A symbol of regenerative relaxation after extraordinary effort, and of man's exceptional capacity for achievement through the whole-giving of himself in an emergency. Here is the dynamic cooperation by which the individual gains a high peak of self-expenditure, and in the moment's intensification rehearses potentialities he would never discover otherwise. What can be misfortune to be suffered can as easily become a successful adventure in broad social responsibility. Keyword: CONCERN When positive, the degree is special skill in bringing personal interests to some larger point of self-effectiveness, and when negative, a fear of experience and a subtle delight in calamity.

Midheaven, Scorpio 29

Scorpio 29: AN INDIAN SQUAW PLEADING TO THE CHIEF FOR THE LIVES OF HER CHILDREN. A symbol of the stark sacrifices the self must make in the common interest and of the high responsibilities the group must accept for the welfare of each individual, as these factors together create a functioning society and enable man to control his everyday world. Here is emphasis on the give-and-take in human allegiances, and a call for a balancing of rights and wrongs as a result of direct experience with the problems of self-fulfillment. Keyword: EFFECTIVENESS When positive, the degree is personal accomplishment and satisfaction through an exceptional gift for holding first things first, and when negative, a willingness to truckle to others.
